Office Hours:

Aside from our TBD scheduled meeting time, feel free to come by anytime I'm in my office – which is typically from 8am until 4pm except when I'm at meetings or class. For up-to-date availability, I plan to use the website <https://ucamath.youcanbook.me/> to make my schedule available.

Course Description

As an independent study on social network analysis you'll need to find resources on the topic and read about them independently. In our weekly meeting you'll present the material you've been studying to me and we'll discuss it together. I would be there to ask questions and help answer questions you come up with - both of which should help refine your understanding of the topic.

Grading Policy

Your grade will be based on your ability to find, learn, and present the information you study this term. The grade at the end of the semester will be based on the following scale:

- A – Was able to identify and learn content related to social network analysis, and then presented it in a 30 minute presentation to at least 3 faculty or grad students.
(It is your responsibility to find three faculty or grad students to come see your presentation at the end of the semester)
- B – Was able to identify and learn content related to social network analysis.
- C – Was able to identify, but failed to learn very much related to social network analysis.
- D – Was unable to identify nor learn anything.
- F – Did not attempt to do anything.

Academic Integrity Statement

The University of Central Arkansas affirms its commitment to academic integrity and expects all members of the university community to accept shared responsibility for maintaining academic integrity. Students in this course are subject to the provisions of the university's Academic Integrity Policy, approved by the Board of Trustees as Board Policy No. 709 on February 10, 2010, and published in the Student Handbook. Penalties for academic misconduct in this course may include a failing grade on an assignment, a failing grade in the course, or any other course-related sanction the instructor determines to be appropriate. Continued enrollment in this course affirms a student's acceptance of this university policy.

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement

The University of Central Arkansas adheres to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you need an accommodation under this Act due to a disability, please contact the UCA Office of Disability Services, 450-3613.

Title IX disclosure:

If a student discloses an act of sexual harassment, discrimination, assault, or other sexual misconduct to a faculty member (as it relates to "student-on-student" or "employee-on-student"), the faculty member cannot maintain complete confidentiality and is required to report the act and may be required to reveal the names of the parties involved. Any allegations made by a student may or may not trigger an investigation. Each situation differs and the obligation to conduct an investigation will depend on those specific set of circumstances. The determination to conduct an investigation will be made by the Title IX Coordinator. For further information, please visit: <https://uca.edu/titleix>. *Disclosure of sexual misconduct by a third party who is not a student and/or employee is also required if the misconduct occurs when the third party is a participant in a university-sponsored program, event, or activity.

Sexual Harassment and Academic Policies Statement

All students are required to familiarize themselves with the University of Central Arkansas policy on sexual harassment and on academic policies. These policies are printed in the Student Handbook.

Building Emergency Plan Statement

An Emergency Procedures Summary (EPS) for the building in which this class is held will be discussed during the first week of this course. EPS documents for most buildings on campus are available at <http://uca.edu/mysafety/bep/>. Every student should be familiar with emergency procedures for any campus building in which he/she spends time for classes or other purposes.
