Chapter 12 Objectives

After studying this chapter, the student will be able to

- Define and explain the key steps in strategic technology planning

- Explain the teacher's role in the strategic planning process

- Describe the key legal, ethical, and social issues that arise when a school implements technology

- Identify the current and emerging technological trends that are likely to impact schools

- Describe the ways in which schools are likely to change as they progress in the Information Age